Letter of Recommendation for Alin Sever

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide this letter of recommendation for Alin Sever, who worked under my management at Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) on the Asylum Reporting team from June 2023 to August 2024.

During this period, Alin was brought onto the Asylum Reporting team specifically to develop new products and reporting methodologies; review, correct, and improve existing reports; and streamline reporting processes. His work focused on identifying reporting issues, improving accuracy and consistency, and strengthening the reliability and usability of reports used to support operational and management decision-making.

This work required precision, sound judgment, and collaboration with colleagues and stakeholders across different branches. Alin consistently demonstrated these qualities. He was able to understand complex reporting requirements, identify gaps and inconsistencies, and propose practical improvements that supported better reporting outcomes.

In addition to his reporting responsibilities, Alin occasionally acted on my behalf in my capacity as Assistant Director when required. In this capacity, he supported priorities across both the Asylum team and the Resettled Refugees, Humanitarian and Compassionate portfolio. He helped coordinate urgent tasks, provided guidance to the team, and contributed to managing time-sensitive operational and reporting needs.

During his time on the team, Alin also received a Problem Solver Award, recognizing his ability to analyze issues, take initiative, and contribute meaningful solutions. This recognition reflected the value he brought to the team and his strong commitment to improving reporting quality.

Alin was dependable, collaborative, and professional. He communicated clearly, followed through on priorities, and approached challenging work with ownership and initiative.

I am pleased to recommend Alin for roles requiring analytical thinking, reporting expertise, data quality awareness, collaboration, and professionalism. I am confident he will bring tremendous value to any organization he joins, and I recommend him without hesitation.

Please feel free to contact me should you require any further information.

Sincerely,

Tsegaye, Angelyn
